Housing Agency Procurement Assistance

Dear Procurement Professionals,

I do not typically publish notices of an available training; however, I am publishing the following training for several reasons:

1. I do not offer a specific Section 3 or Prevailing Wage training.
2. HUD has recently issued additional information and revisions to both of these issues.
3. The noted issues (Section 3 and Prevailing Wages) have some relationship to procurement.

My distributing this information is not to be taken as an endorsement or recommendation of this training, the trainers, or the firm identified following (I do not endorse other firms or individuals). I am simply distributing this Notice in case it is of interest to anyone who may receive this Notice.

Please do not contact me for any additional information pertaining to this training, but contact Motivation, Inc. directly.
